DETAILS: Mr. WALTER K. CLAYTON, oil lease broker, permanent address, 832 Melba Street, Dallas, Texas, and temporary address Post Office Box 9, Las Vegas, Nevada, advised that he was formerly acquainted with MULLEN in Denver, Colorado, for a period of about one and a half years, and that this acquaintanceship ceased about 16 or 18 years ago and he has had no contact with MULLEN since that time. He said that he became acquainted with MULLEN through MULLEN'S mother, and that after her death which occurred about 16 or 18 years ago, he lost all contact with MULLEN. According to Mr. CLAYTON, MULLEN'S mother was in the real estate business and well known in religious circles in Denver, and MULLEN was a correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor. He said that in a conversation with MULLEN'S mother, she told him that she was concerned with the fact that MULLEN did considerable drinking in his younger days, and he, CLAYTON, gained the impression that MULLEN is supposed to have done this drinking while he was going to school. He said that he was surprised that MULLEN'S mother should say this, because in all his contacts with MULLEN he found him to be very temperate, and an "occasional beer" would be the only drinking in which MULLEN ever indulged. He further stated that he knew nothing concerning MULLEN'S character and reputation which could be considered as derogatory. In addition, he stated that at no time during all the time that he knew MULLEN did he see, hear, or know about anything that would reflect even remotely on the loyalty of MULLEN to this country.

ADMINISTRATIVE DETAILS

Upon receipt of the teletype from Dallas dated November 7, 1949, contact was made with the Post Office officials at Las Vegas, Nevada, and it was learned that WALTER K. CLAYTON was assigned Box No. 9, but no local address for CLAYTON was available. Accordingly, a note was placed in CLAYTON'S box, requesting that he contact the Las Vegas Resident Agency as soon as possible. Mr. CLAYTON did not contact the Las Vegas Resident Agency until November 14, 1949, at which time he was interviewed.

Rebulet Nov. 10 last. The only lead for the Dallas Division in instant case was to interview Mr. WALTER K. CLAYTON, former president of the Purple Sage Oil Corp., who resided at Box 323 Canyon, Texas, which lead was set out by teletype from Denver dated 10/28/49. No interview with CLAYTON was conducted by this office, and it is determined that he currently resides care of Box 9, Las Vegas, Nev., which information was provided to the Salt Lake City Division by teletype dated 11/7/49, copy of which was designated for the Bureau. Inasmuch as CLAYTON was not located this division and no interview concerning applicant was conducted, unless advised to the contrary, no report is being submitted by this office.

Reference, WILLIAM L. BATT, SR., President of SKF Industries, Incorporated, Front Street and Erie Avenue, stated he had known the applicant quite intimately since about 1943. During the latter years of World War II, BATT stated he was the American representative on the Joint Production and Resources Board and the Combined Raw Materials Board, and that he searched the country looking for a man qualified to tell the public the story of the work of the Joint Board. He found MULLEN, who was at that time an associate editor of the "Christian Science Monitor", to be qualified for this position. BATT stated he recommended the applicant personally to PAUL HOFFMAN, Director of ECA, when the latter requested an individual for the same type of work that MULLEN was doing for the Joint Boards. BATT stated he believed MULLEN was now in Paris with Mr. HOFFMAN.

BATT describes MULLEN as a clean living family man of high moral character and reputation and a person who has no affiliation with any groups or persons espousing un-American activities. He stated that his daughter is a neighbor of the applicant in Scarsdale, New York, and that he knows the applicant socially.

ADMINISTRATIVE DETAILS

The files of the Philadelphia Office reflect that WILLIAM L. BATT, President of SKF Industries, Incorporated, Philadelphia, was the subject of an ICE investigation in this office. In the report made by SA Jack Waldman, dated September 16, 1948, Philadelphia File 121-1439, entitled--"WILLIAM LOREN BATT, Advisory Committee on Foreign Aid, Department of State, Washington, D. C.", it is reflected that BATT is described as one of Philadelphia's most distinguished citizens and a person of unquestionable patriotism and loyalty.

DETAILS:

Employment

Mrs. LOUISE RINDFUSS, Assistant Personnel Director, Time and Life Incorporated, 9 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City, furnished the following information.

ROBERT RODOLF MULLEN was born on November 24, 1908, place not stated. He attended East High School, Denver, Colorado; then the University of Wisconsin and the University of Denver. He was formerly employed with the Rocky Mountain News at Denver; between 1935 and 1945 he was associated with the Christian Science Monitor in Boston, Massachusetts; in the period between 1944 and 1945 he was with the War Production Board in charge of public relations and assistant to Mr. W. L. BATT, Vice Chairman of the War Production Board. He became affiliated with Time and Life Incorporated on December 1, 1945 and served as a member of the editorial staff until December 31, 1947. At his own request, on the latter date, he was placed on a retainer basis with this company to do spot feature work. He was associated with Time and Life Incorporated on this basis from January 1, 1948 to December 31, 1948. He resigned his affiliation with the company on that date in order to devote himself to study and feature writing.

According to Mrs. RINDFUSS, MULLEN was an official who was highly thought of throughout the duration of his employment, not only from the standpoint of ability but of character and reputation as well. His record contains comment by Mr. JOHN K. JESSUP, MULLEN's supervisory official, in which Mr. JESSUP lauds the character and ability of Mr. MULLEN. His file provided the further information that MULLEN resided at 31 Montrose Road, Scarsdale, New York, while associated with this company.

WILSON HICKS, executive editor of Life Magazine, 9 Rockefeller Plaza, stated that he has known MULLEN for the past four years. He described MULLEN as an able and honorable man, an excellent family man and a law-abiding citizen. Mr. HICKS stated that MULLEN's character is above reproach and he enjoys a splendid reputation personally and professionally. He recommended MULLEN for government service without qualification.

JOHN K. JESSUP, Chairman of the Board of Editors, Fortune Magazine, a Time and Life, Incorporated publication, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York City, designated by MULLEN as one of his references, stated that he has known

MULLEN for several years. He said that he was acquainted with no more honorable man than MULLEN, whom he described as one of sterling character and reputation. He described MULLEN's background to be excellent and said that MULLEN has established himself on a high plane in the field of journalism. Mr. JESSUP recommends Mr. MULLEN without reservation.

JOHN ORR YOUNG, President, John Orr Young Associates, Incorporated, 347 Madison Avenue, New York City, informed that he has known MULLEN for about four years and that he has known him by reputation for some ten years. He stated that MULLEN occupied an office on a free lance basis here from January 1, 1949 until a matter of three weeks ago when he went back into government service as an advisor to Mr. PAUL HOFFMAN, Economic Cooperation Administration head. Mr. YOUNG stated that MULLEN is an exceedingly capable man who has achieved an enviable reputation in the field of journalism, not only from the standpoint of personal capacity, but on the basis of his excellent character. While working in this office MULLEN devoted himself to editing work and in the composition of feature articles for such publications as "Readers Digest" and others. Mr. YOUNG described MULLEN as one of the finest men he knows, a person of fine reputation and character, and a man who is devoted to America and to her best interests. He closed by stating that he knew of no one who better qualified for his recommendation on the basis of good character, reputation and loyalty to country.

Neighborhood

Miss DORA COLLINS, 29 Montrose Road, Scarsdale, New York, informed that the MULLEN family have resided at 31 Montrose Road since 1945. She stated that the family is composed of MULLEN, his wife and their four children. Miss COLLINS said that the MULLEN family enjoys an excellent reputation in this community and are considered typically well-to-do, law-abiding, loyal citizens.

Mrs. A. V. JONES, 33 Montrose Road, informed that she has known the MULLEN family rather well for about four years. In her opinion they are of excellent repute, individuals of fine character and they are loyal to the United States. She stated that at the present time Mr. MULLEN is abroad in a governmental capacity. She could furnish no information of a nature unfavorable to any member of the MULLEN family.

WILLIAM J. CLARK, 30 Montrose Road, confirmed that the MULLEN family have lived in this community since 1945. According to him, all members of the MULLEN family are persons of good breeding, model neighbors in every sense; they are individuals of excellent character and reputation. In his opinion they are entirely loyal to their country.

J. STUDLEY ALEXANDER, 32 Montrose Road, who has known the MULLEN family for some years, stated that they are a typical American family in every sense. He considers them to be of excellent character, reputation and loyal to country.

Miscellaneous

Records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York reflect that ROBERT R. MULLEN enjoys a good credit rating. Records of the Westchester Credit Agency contain no information concerning MULLEN.

No reference for any member of the MULLEN family was located with the Scarsdale or New York City Police Departments.
